ORDER:

Learned counsel for the petitioner called absent. Learned Government Pleader for School Education represented that the school run by the second respondent society, in respect of which the petitioner sought for a direction to permit her to function as Head Mistress, was closed down and the learned Government Pleader has produced a copy of order of this Court dated 18th November 2004 in W.P.No.5694 of 1996, wherein this Court, accepting the plea of Government Pleader appearing in that case that the institution was not in existence, dismissed the writ petition which was also filed seeking certain directions in respect of said institution.

2. In view of this submission, no writ can be issued against the respondent No.2 which ceased to be in existence with effect from 2000-2001 academic year.

3. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
